MARIA CRISTINA ADDIS

Research Fellow
Unisi

Maria Cristina Addis is Research Fellow in Semiotics at the Department of Social, Political and Cognitive Sciences of the University of Siena (DISPOC), member of the Inter-university Center “Omar Calabrese” for Research in Semiotics and Image Sciences (CROSS), Lecturer of Theories and Languages of Product Design at the University of Bozen. Her main research interests are spatial and visual representations of power, architectural and urban devices, heterotopic places. The methodology to analyze such objects interweave the semiotic approach with studies of critical philosophy and political geography.
