

SHORT TERM CITY

Digital platforms
and spatial justice

VENERE STEFANIA SANNA

Researcher
Sapienza

Venere Stefania Sanna is a political and economic geography researcher currently working for Sapienza University and for the Italian Ministry of Environment. Her main research interests are local economic development, sustainability transition, the sharing economy and the circular economy. Her approach is interdisciplinary, based on qualitative and quantitative methods, and often policy-oriented. She is MC member and co-leader of the WG about impacts of the collaborative economy in the COST Action Sharing & Caring.